

ARE YOU DISABLED AND NOT RECEIVING THE SOCIAL SECURITY BENEFITS YOU ARE ENTITLED TO?

If you are unable to work full-time because of an illness, injury, or medical condition and you are not yet retirement age, you may be eligible for Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI) benefits.

There Are Many Benefits to Receiving Social Security Disability:

- ◆ The same monthly Social Security income you would receive at full retirement age
- ◆ Cost of living increases
- ◆ Early enrollment into Medicare
- ◆ Potential monthly benefit for dependent family members

About Social Security Disability

You may qualify for Social Security Disability benefits if you answer yes to all of the following questions:

- ◆ Between the ages of 18 and 64?
- ◆ Not working full time?
- ◆ Worked and paid FICA and/or Medicare taxes?
- ◆ Diagnosed with a disabling condition that is expected to last 12 months or longer?

HOW WE CAN HELP

The IUOE has selected SSDC Services as their preferred partner to provide IUOE's members, family and friends with professional, experienced SSDI representation services at a discounted rate.

SSDC is offering a significant discounted rate to the Social Security allowed amount to provide these services. When you contact us, ask about the IUOE's discounted rate. There is not a fee unless you are awarded SSDI benefits. The fee will be deducted from your SSDI back payments. There are no out of pocket payments!

SSDC has over 35 years experience helping people navigate the complex Social Security system and obtaining the benefits to which they are entitled.
